I am born in the french Alps in 1994,
where I grew up.

I start to study photography in 2012 in Nancy (France) where I graduated in 2015 from a Bachelor of Arts in Photography.

My work is mainly focused on human and his relationship with images. I try to explore and re-examine photography's theory, and deep process.

I published my first book (Animalis) in 2015, with ARP Edition, a belgian editor.

I never exhibited yet.
